A TEACHING SERIES IN THE BOOK OF JAMES

SHOW & TELL

“SHOW AND TELL” SERIES OVERVIEW:

This series is a study through the book of James. Written by Jesus' half brother, the book of James shares sage wisdom for all the churches and followers of Jesus. It's influenced by Proverbs and frequently quotes Jesus' Sermon on the Mount.

While James doesn't teach new theology, it does challenge believers on how they should live. Topics covered include words, favoritism, love, wealth and hardship. When believers listen to and obey God's word, they love Him and others. Their actions match their words, and their lives are made whole, complete and perfect.

Icebreaker:

What has been your biggest takeaway from this study on the book of James?

LifeGroup Discussion Questions: **Don't feel like you have to get through all the questions below. We create and give you more than you need to ensure that you have all that you need. Feel free to add / takeaway based on the needs of your group.*

1. How does reading James 5:13-20 through the lens of community change your perception of receiving help or helping others?
2. Do you tend to be someone who says “I don't want to be a burden” or are you of the mindset “I am an open book”? Why do you think you operate that way?
3. In regards to community, which part of James 5:13-20 is most difficult for you to act on?
4. What was your response to the scientific findings of the physical and psychological benefits to community and prayer?
5. Why do you think it is so hard to do life connected with others, especially in the hard times? (i.e. schedule, pride, personality)
6. Where do you think is your greatest growth opportunity: receiving community or giving community?
